

SHIELD

And if the soul is to know itself it must look into a soul:
the stranger and enemy, we've seen him in the mirror.

George Mendoza

THE SHIELD

Someone told me It's all happening at the zoo.
I do believe it,
I do believe it's true.

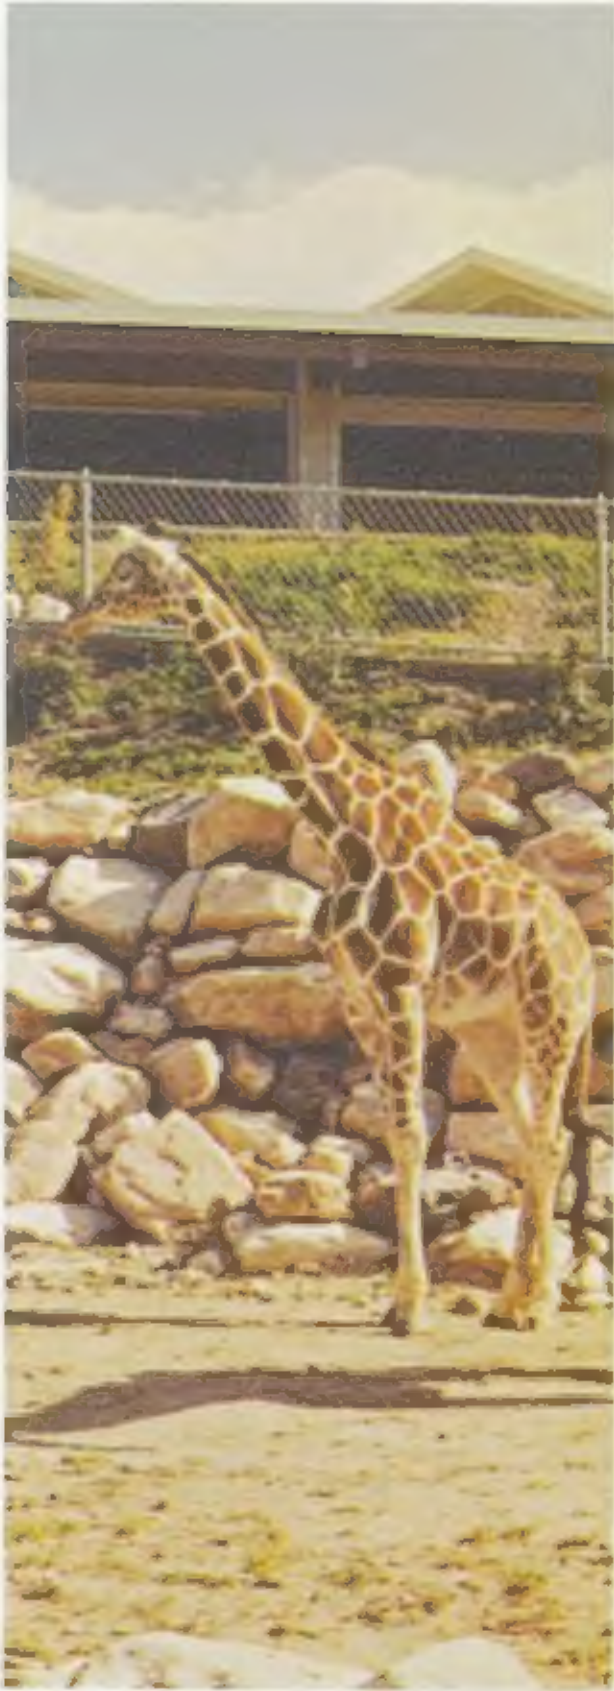

1971

The monkeys stand for honesty,

Giraffes are insincere...

Zebras are reactionaries,

Antelopes are missionaries,

And the elephants are kindly but They're dumb.

Orangutans are skeptical Of changes in their cages,

Pigeons plot in secrecy,

What a gas! You gotta come see
At the zoo.

STUDENT LIFE

Overcome by the ache of challenge, the agony of self-discipline finally becomes unbearable. I must escape if only for a moment; lose a part of myself to fantasy. Probing through a million dimensions my mind wanders entering secret, unseen worlds. I will seek to fulfill my dreams and use them to work for me.

Student Leadership

When I was a young man coming up my elders told me the future belongs to the youth and I believed it yes I did and I worked to change the world

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth,

I shall be telling this with a sigh Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I — I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Granger Takes Region

Dropping back with the ball ripe in my palm grained and firm as the flesh of a living charn, I taper and coil myself down, raise arms to fake, running a little, seeing my targets emerge like quail above a wheat field's golden lake

And as I run and weigh, measure and test, the light kindles on helmets, the air gyres up but secretly, cool, as though stretching a hand to his chest,

I lay the ball in the arms of my planning end, as true as metal, as deftly as surgeon's wrist

In the beginning was the Kickoff
The ball flew spiralling true into the end zone where it was snagged, neatly hugged by a swivel-hipped back who ran up the field and was smeared

The game has begun
The game has been won,
The game goes on Long live the game Gather and lock tackle and block move, move, around the arena and always the beautiful trajectories

With two 60's stuck on the scoreboard
 And two seconds hanging on the clock,
 The solemn boy in the center of eyes,
 Squeezed by silence,
 Seeks out the line with his feet,
 Soothes his hands along his uniform Gently drums the ball against the floor
 Then measures the waiting net, Raises the ball on his right hand,
 Balances it with his left,
 Calms it with fingertips Breathes
 Crouches
 Wants,
 And then through a stretching of stillness Nudges it upward

The ball
 Slides up and out,
 Lands.
 Leans,
 Wobbles,
 Wavers,
 Hesitates,
 Exasperates,
 Plays it coy
 Until every face begs with unsounding screams —
 And then

And then
 And then,
 Right before ROAR-UP, Dives down and through

We have created images in our minds then we poured them onto paper.

And we have sung songs and talent flowed through our voices,
. they echo in memories

Speeches linger, and the actors' shadows dance on the backdrops of our minds.

Looking back remember we have performed and created, our artistry lives upon our lips and on our fingertips.

And it might explode over my

A black and white photograph of a group of approximately 15 young people, likely a school group, posing in front of a building with large columns. The group is arranged in two rows, with some individuals sitting or kneeling in the front and others standing behind them. The image is somewhat faded and has a grainy texture.

Our thoughts are the epochs of our lives:
all else is but as a journal of the winds that blew while we were here.

The Accolade

We are and in being become a jigsaw self Fitting together our pieces of Time — we create Truly Told.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Sometimes I think people were not really strangers.
Not to get to know one another but to get to know one another in a way that would make the heart be a little bit better.

But then something came along and changed that for a while anyway.
— Mike

A black and white photograph of a group of nine young people, likely a high school or college group, standing outdoors in a line. They are dressed in casual attire typical of the mid-20th century. The group includes both men and women of various heights and builds. The background is slightly blurred, suggesting an outdoor setting like a schoolyard or park.

Gymnastics Club

A black and white photograph of a large group of young women, likely a cheerleading squad, posing in three rows. The back row is standing, the middle row is kneeling, and the front row is sitting on the floor. They are all wearing dark, long-sleeved uniforms with light-colored skirts. The photo is grainy and has a vintage feel.

 we all stood in the day Unitary in our beliefs and casting separate shadows Yet a cluster of individuals stood in dignity beneath the splendor of constant sunrises they stood shining separate in the high eminent rays of the sun

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

I watched the elephant drying in the early morning. Dark ash turned a chalky silver. The storm of the jungle dawn had come — now gone with the approaching sun and I had run in for shelter as the prelude of the downpour descended — yet he lingered seeking no protection beneath the jungle canopy. He caught every cleansing drop recovered from the rains before I stood and mused over his inborn wisdom. My intelligence and the animal's cunning instruct — this borderline in knowledge I am seeking.

CLASSICS

Spirit, loyalty, success and defeat are known to all students. Cheering at a football game, mastering the fundamentals of algebra, acting as a representative of Poland in the Model United Nations Club, and getting a part in the school musical are all part of a school year. The banging of lockers, laughing with friends, and dashing to the next class will linger in the memories of all who have walked through the halls of Granger High

Senior Class Officers

Bettering student involvement, this year's Seniors led the way in promoting such activities as the Senior Ball, Homecoming, and the Senior Assembly. Senior activity was built on the enthusiasm of class officers, President Bob Grant, Vice-President Jeff Jamison, Secretary Jody Littlefield, and Round Table Representative, Kevin Huntington, who launched the class into a year of spirited growth and achievement.

IN MEMORIAM

"The road is long
With many a winding turn,
That leads us to who knows where,
Who knows where,
But I'm strong, strong enough to carry him.
He ain't heavy; he's my brother."
